ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP

Five years ago, the Alumni Association established the María del Pilar Pérez Alumni Scholarship in memoriam of "Pala". "Pala" graduated in 1974 and was the first President of the Alumni Association in 1998.

This is a merit scholarship granted to a graduate in the top 25% of the senior class and consists of a one-time payment of $1,000 U.S. dollars or its equivalent in Colombian pesos, paid directly to the honored student upon his or her enrollment in an accredited institution in Colombia or abroad. This year 16 twelve graders were invited and 7 applied. Each of them had to write an essay expressing the importance and the responsibility of being a Colegio Bolívar alumnus.

This year the scholarship was granted to Ana Isabel Ortiz. In her essay she says: "I have the responsibility to try my very best at all times, it is my job to share my knowledge and tools so that the rest of the society can also step ahead...the school has created in me a strong spirit of collaboration and has made me have high aspirations for the welfare of the society at large."

Remember to give back and share what you were given. This is your greatest responsibility as a Colegio Bolívar alumnus.

Congratulations Ana Isabel!!

To her and to the Class of 2009, we wish them the best and don't forget to start building your legacy, never lose sight of your goals and never forget where it all began, here at Colegio Bolívar.

Luis Gabriel Trujillo '05

In May of 2009, Luis Gabriel graduated Summa cum Laude from Vassar College in three majors: Economics, Political Science and French. Last year he was chosen as President of his class in Vassar and therefore gave the Commencement Speech in front of 2,000 people. Link to view his video (minute 49): <http://commencement.vassar.edu/webcast.html>. He's currently working in Washington as a Paralegal for Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP. Luis Gabriel has everything planned out and knows that after working for 1 year in this prestigious firm, he'll travel to South Africa since he won the Maguire Scholarship to study in the African Gender Institute of the University of Cape Town. He'll be in South Africa for 1 year doing research about the legal status of women in South Africa and their relation with the sustainable development and the AIDS epidemic. Afterwards, he's planning on returning to the US and major in International Humanitarian Rights.

Paola Dorrnsoro and Eleonora Guzmán '05

Paola Dorrnsoro and Eleonora Guzmán, graduated in May from University of Virginia's McIntire School of Commerce, ranked by BusinessWeek as No. 1 among the Nation's Undergraduate Business Schools, followed by the Mendoza School of Business at Notre Dame University and Wharton at University of Pennsylvania. Paola obtained a Bachelor of Science in Commerce with double concentration in Marketing and Management and Eleonora graduated with distinction and obtained a Bachelor of Science in Commerce with a concentration in Marketing and double major in Psychology.

Both will be initiating their professional careers in New York, Paola is currently working in a private equity firm and Eleonora will join Ogilvy and Mather a marketing communications firm in August. Congratulations!

Daniela Molina '03

Lehigh University graduate, Daniela Molina, helped Ford Motor Co. improve the consistency of the mold thickness in the bumpers of its vehicles using a type of polyethylene. She also helped General Motors produce a car with power-swinging side doors that can be opened remotely. "The goal in our project was to develop a power-swinging door that can be put on a vehicle that is less expensive than the Rolls-Royce or Mercedes," says Molina. "It will be great for older people as well as for soccer moms with lots of kids, but there are challenges we had to overcome. The motor has to be able to open and close the doors, and also keep the doors open on an incline."

Juliana Buenaventura '05

Juliana Buenaventura was nominated and elected to become part of the Phi Beta Kappa, US oldest and most prestigious undergraduate honors organization. She met and fulfilled the following criteria: (1) Quality of academic record; (2) Breadth of interest; and (3) Opinions of faculty and senior administrators concerning the scholarly achievements and character of the candidate. Besides that, Juliana won the Jane's Essay Prize for the best undergraduate paper in Latin American and Latino Studies. The award was based on quality of research, originality of the analysis and clarity of the writing. Her essay's name "An Assessment of President Alvaro Uribe's Counterinsurgency Measures against the FARC in Colombia."

Steven Nagy '05

"The School of Education, Health, and Human Performance is proud to introduce Steven Nagy as the 2008 recipient of Goizueta Fellows Scholarship. Nagy grew up in Colombia, South America; his father is a school superintendent and administrator, his mother was a kindergarten teacher. Following his parents footsteps, Nagy is currently an elementary education major with a passion for education". "Education for me does not only revolve around the classroom. Education does not only involve what's in the best interest of your students, but what's in the best interest of the community in which your students are being taught." Also a forward on the College of Charleston soccer team, Nagy was named to the 2007-2008 Southern Conference Academic Honor Roll for his exceptional GPA.

Hicieron parte del Cuadro de Honor de la Universidad Icesi el semestre pasado, los siguientes estudiantes:

Lina María Álvarez • Sebastián Cabal • David Daniel Corredor • Natalia Duque • Juan David Soler • Christian Vélez • Enrique Copete • María Virginia Álvarez • Manuela Ramírez • Daniela Duque • Álvaro José Córdoba • Daniel Otero • Gabriel Aparicio

CONGRATULATIONS!

2009 Alumni Homecoming Celebration

This year our Alumni Homecoming Celebration took place on Saturday, June 13 at 5:00 p.m., in the John P. Lee gymnasium, where approximately 150 Alumni spent a wonderful evening with their classmates and friends in the warmest atmosphere, our second home.

This year, we had several special guests join us at the gym; they were Jovita Feijo, el Gato de Tejada and a couple of salsa dancers. Yes, Cali Viejo was present in this year's party; even though it rained you could still feel the energy fill out the gym! As is tradition we had a "wonderful party!" Although it was planned to start at 5:00 pm several Alumni from the decades of the 70's and 80's arrived at 4:00 pm to make a tour around campus, conducted by our Student Ambassadors.

After the tours, people started arriving to the John P. Lee gymnasium and sitting at their tables, which were decorated with "macetas" and a variety of typical delights, which included empanadas, chontaduros and mango viche. Three classes shined above the rest, Class of 79, 84 and 89 had their tables full and it seemed they were having a great time catching up on current events.

Empleados

At around 8 o'clock the music was stopped for a short while for Dr. Nagy, our school director, to give everybody a warm welcome. He made a special mention to the people who came to the homecoming and gave a special thanks to our sponsors and the team who made it all possible. It's important to mention that not only alumni were invited; former CB employees and current CB employees who have been with the school for more than 20 years shared this moment!

After Dr. Nagy's speech we saw a beautiful picture presentation showing the before and after of the school. We also saw pictures of former CB employees and pictures of the alumni who were celebrating their anniversary, among future projects of our institution. This brought good memories to mind and you could hear the laughter, sighing and screaming of everyone, a great sense of belonging was perceived. We just love our school!

Comité de recepción

Everything was set up for the first show of the night: "Show Tropical". Danzartes blew us away with this first show and made everybody stand up. Afterwards, the live band "Los Paisaleños" made everybody sing along.

Class of 1989

Before midnight, the second show of the night began: "Salsa Show." Since we're in the "salsa capital of the world", we had to dance salsa and the dancers showed some great moves and made everyone dance until two o'clock in the morning, when we turned off the music. Once again we had a great party! We hope this celebration brings more and more people each year, especially the young ones who usually start coming several years after their graduation.

Remember it's never late to build your Class Legacy!

Special Thank Yous...

To Patricia Nasser, Olga Patiño, Giselle de la Torre, for their great support during the event as the welcoming committee and their “very long sitting hours” at the inscription tent; to Mathilde Daireaux and Patricia Nasser for all their help finishing the decorations before the event; to Rocio, Nhora and Viviana for their help in the “ticket sale;” to Rodrigo Navia for teaching me how to develop the picture presentation which was shown at the beginning of the event; to the maintenance team for their hard work putting everything together; to the Student Ambassadors who helped with the tours that evening; to the school administration for their continuous support of this event; to Asopadres for their contribution to the gym’s decoration; to the Class Captains, who throughout every year play a very important roll helping us gather their classmates.

Thank you to our Sponsors!!!

Thank you so much for your support: Banco de Occidente  Café Aguila Roja  Colgate Palmolive  Colombina  El País  Reckitt Benckiser  Río Pance	Their support and those of the attendees made this event a great success allowing us to continue developing new services and activities for CB Alumni! Save the date for next year’s anniversary celebration: June 12th  Help us beat all the records!
El Rancho de Jonás and La Casa de la Cerveza were in charge of the food and drinks and also sponsored the event.	2010 Anniversaries:  Classes of 65, 70, 75, 80, 85,  90, 95, 00, 05!!

Career Placement Program

The Colegio Bolivar Alumni Career Placement Program is a service available for alumni and other community members through the CBA website. This program seeks to create networking and recruiting opportunities for our alumni.

If you are interested in posting an opening, please send a complete description of the profile to cbalumni@colegiobolivar.edu.co with its respective contact information. We will post it!

The CBA Career Connection’s mission is to serve, support and promote alumni. We created a Job Bank, in which several job opportunities from our community and other companies in Colombia and around the world are posted in our web page. This is our first step to achieve the Career Connections mission.

If you are searching for a job, please enter www.colegiobolivar.edu.co/cbalumni/job\_openings.htm

Class Captains!!!

There has been a growing interest towards participating as a Class Captain and getting involved in school activities. We find the Class Captain's role extremely important in order to strengthen class group bonds, update data base and increase attendance to the Alumni Homecoming.

What is a Class Captain?

A Class Captain is a representative of a class group. This person is the primary link between the Class and Colegio Bolivar. The class captain's involvement is needed to make sure that the things that matter the most to each class group are taken in consideration and for encouraging as many classmates as possible to attend the Homecoming. The captain's commitment is contagious to classmates, generating the excitement to "come home to remember" and invest in Colegio Bolivar's future!

What does a Class Captain do?

The role as a Class Captain includes:

- Inviting classmates back to CB for Homecoming by writing an invitation letter, e-mail, and/or making phone calls prior to Homecoming;
- Attending the Homecoming;
- Gathering classmates for own special purpose at Homecoming (a special time is set aside for class gatherings);
- Encouraging classmates; for example, to take this opportunity to support Colegio Bolivar through a reunion giving program (this could include choosing a class gift designation);
- Assisting the Alumni Office in locating addresses of fellow classmates;
- Keeping in touch with the alumni office so we can help make the job a successful one!

A class captain does not need to work on its own! Why not invite 2 or 3 of your classmates to lend a hand?

What help is available to the Class Captain?

The Alumni Office will help in every possible way to make each class reunion a success! We will prepare and e-mail messages to classmates, put the Class Captain in touch with other class captains who can give some ideas, and be available to answer questions.

Why consider serving as a Class Captain?

It is not a difficult or time consuming task and it is a lot of fun to touch base with former classmates. Our office will assist you in every way. If you have questions or ideas for your reunion or special projects in celebration of your honored year, please feel free to contact Carolina Chavez, Alumni Affairs Officer, at (57 2) 684 8600 / 555 2039 ext.277 or e-mail cbalumni@colegiobolivar.edu.co.

We are still missing some Captains...

Richard Dolmetsch '86

El caleño Richard Dolmetsch Cuevas fue premiado en los Estados Unidos por sus avances en el diagnóstico y tratamiento del autismo.

El neurobiólogo e investigador caleño Richard Dolmetsch Cuevas fue premiado en los Estados Unidos con el máximo galardón otorgado a los pioneros en investigación científica (NIH Directors Pioneer Award). El mérito se lo llevó por crear neuronas a partir de células madres obtenidas de la piel de pacientes con autismo y así poder tratar esta enfermedad y otras psiquiátricas.

A los 17 años egresó del Colegio Bolívar y se fue para los Estados Unidos persiguiendo el sueño que lo ha inquietado durante sus 40 años de vida: descubrir el funcionamiento del cerebro humano.

Durante más de 10 años pasó días y noches encerrado en los laboratorios de la Universidad de Stanford, hasta que logró obtener la primera célula cerebral y dar un paso agigantado en el diagnóstico y tratamiento del autismo.

Hijo de Ángela Cuevas, luchadora incansable de los derechos de las mujeres en la ciudad y del músico inglés Francois Dolmetsch, Richard siente que ha logrado uno de los mayores retos de su vida al beneficiar a toda la humanidad. "Lastimosamente en Colombia hay mucho talento humano y biológico, pero no existen las garantías suficientes para lograr desarrollos científicos."

EL PREMIO

Richard recibió de las manos del gobierno de los Estados Unidos una medalla, un certificado y 10 millones de dólares para continuar con las investigaciones. Ya existe un posible tratamiento para el autismo que será aplicado a un grupo como prueba en los Estados Unidos.

DESAFÍO BOLÍVAR COLOMBO

VS

The Alumni Soccer Game: Bolívar vs Colombo took place on Saturday, June 6, in the Estadio Pascual Guerrero. Approximately 2,500 people attended. The final score was 1 – 0, Colombo winning by a penalty in the first half. The whole idea of playing this match, besides having a fun time, was to inspire children and adults to play with camaraderie and show that true companionship is the way to go. Memorable moment!

Martha Juanita Nieto '00

Martha Juanita is living between Milan, Rome and NYC. Her job requires so, since she's the Fashion Merchandiser Manager for all the womenswear lines at Valentino Spa (Milan Italy). Martha graduated from Philadelphia University with a major in fashion merchandising and a master in fashion management Bocconi at the University of Milan. She's also an online teacher for Parsons School of Design (NYC, USA). Her hobbies: teaching, singing, pilates and travel!

Alexandra Arango '04

I now work in Japan, a country whose economic and global development is superior. A country that has a strongly founded education system and resources to go around. But nothing compares when I look around to the bare classrooms that have no posters, and no colors, the walls in the hallways are cold cement, and the students eat lunch and spend their entire days in the same classroom. No cafeteria, no benches, no fun bulletin boards. It is at times when I stroll through the cement jungle, that I daydream about my days at Bolivar, where I could prance through the decorated hallways with view of the lush mountains. I remember my 8th grade Math teacher who would have us look outside the windows and learn to appreciate the beauty of the Farallones. Look around your classroom, and take in the vivacity of the colors and smell of pandebonos in the air for snack time. Walk through the paths absorbing the smell of tropical flowers and the freshness that rises from the ground.

Diana A. Navarro '05

I am Diana Amelia Navarro, from the class of 2005. I am currently living in Paris, France. I will graduate on May 2010 from the American University of Paris. I am doing a double major international business and global communications. As hobbies, I love to travel, learn languages, and horseback riding. I'm glad to stay in touch with the school!

Santiago Bueno Velasco '05

Me gradué en Mayo de Dalhousie University en Halifax, Nova Scotia en Canadá con un Bachelor of Commerce degree. Actualmente estoy en el proceso de mudarme a Toronto donde voy a comenzar a trabajar con KPMG LLP en el Consumer Markets practice y estoy en el proceso de obtener mi designación profesional, CA, con el ICAO. Con respecto a Hobbies en el invierno juego Squash, en los veranos Golf y en las vacaciones trato de hacer Scuba Diving.

Lucas Jaramillo '05

My name is Lucas Jaramillo I graduated in 2005. I am currently studying in Universidad Autónoma de Occidente, Administración de Empresas modalidad dual. This mayor lets me each semester study three months and work for the next three months, now I am employed at Comestibles Aldor S.A. I will graduate in 2012 and plan to extend my studies in Brazil.

Daniel Panebianco '05

My future plan is to graduate from Tufts University in 2010. Either go directly to graduate school to get a Master's in Structural Engineering or look for a job in that field, not sure yet. Majoring in: Civil Engineering and Minor: Architectural Studies. I'm currently living in Boston, MA and doing my internship during summer 2009 in LeMessurier Consultants, Structural Engineers.

Andrés Felipe Ramírez Botero '07

Currently, I'm finishing my second year of medicine and surgery in the Universidad del Valle. In August 18 2009, I will start 3rd year. I'm living in Cali, Colombia and I plan to specialize in psychiatry or genetics after I receive my MD degree, but I don't know where yet. No formal hobbies because university takes up most of my time, and it will get worse as I move on!!!! However, on my spare time I like to cook, listen to music, get on the internet and go out with my friends to a bar, restaurant or disco.
