Colegio Bolivar Revisited

Patricia Cabal '00 teaching theater to Colegio Bolivar 6th grade students:

Patricia Cabal, Class of 2000, graduated in Theater from NYU (New York University) and will begin studies at Nova University (Miami) in Educational Interdisciplinary Arts and Marriage in Family Therapy. On September 1st Patricia came back to school not just to do a tour around campus but she actually came to teach theater to 6th graders.

The action took place in Mrs. Giraldo's class and the students began with actual theatre exercises were they had to work in their breathing, posture, sounds, facial and body expressions. At first the children laughed but after 10 minutes they began to take the exercises seriously and adapt them in their regular activities. The results were obvious: at the end of the class the students were able to tell a story as a group in front of their classmates with confidence, good posture and great intonation.

The purpose of the workshop was to help the students speak in front of an audience with no fear, good expression and power.

Patricia thanks so much for giving back!
