My Science Project and Spanish Homework

I did the coolest Science project but the teacher said "it's a terrible project" and that I had to do it again
Then she says "It's for tomorrow!"
"Tomorrow?? Oh noooo I have Spanish homework" I said
I did the Science project and the Spanish homework
My Spanish teacher says "very good!" and I go "Yeah!"
The Science teacher says "very bad!" and I go "Just my luck, this is so unfair!"

The Spanish homework took two minutes and the project three days!

Carlos Mario Varon, Colegio Hebreo Jorge Isaacs

The Eyes of My Mother

The eyes of my mother are beautiful
The eyes of my mother are my world
The eyes of my mother are my sun
The eyes of my mother are my honey hive
The eyes of my mother are a rose for me
The eyes of my mother are my words
The eyes of my mother are my music
The eyes of my mother are my heart
The eyes of my mother are a rainbow
The eyes of my mother are the rain of my life

Yes I love the eyes of my mother.

Jose Alejandro Motato, Colegio Hebreo Jorge Isaacs

My Fat Friend

My best friend is fat
But I really don't know why.
He always uses a hat
And he always waves good bye.
At breakfast he eats a sandwich,
At lunch he eats hot dogs.
Eating is his greatest wish
And dreaming on rumps of frogs.
For eating he's the king
And for sleeping he is too.
His second wish is to sing
In the choir of the zoo.
He has a little cat I just know, he always says.
Why he's always really sad
And playing "Word's Last Day" (XBOX Game)
He loves to see the night
And to see the wide white moon.
Okay and that's all right, I wish he loses weight soon.

Esteban Zapata, Cañaverales International School

It Was a Special Bike

I have a story that I know
It's so funny, you will see.
How my dream was born,
It was very cute as a bee.
One day I went to the gym
While I was eating a bun,
And it was a large trip
But it was fun.
When I arrived I saw a bike,
So I started to ride
And there was a microphone,
So I started to sing a song.
After that moment,
My dream was just to sing.
I started to think,
How pretty it could be.

Isabella Martínez, Cañaverales International School

ORIGINAL POETRY

My Imaginary Friend

My imaginary friend is called Bill and in my last dream he wanted to use a drill,
I thought he was crazy, but he said he was lazy, too lazy for using a pick axe
So he looked for one, but he found none, he was so angry that he destroyed his mother's mill.

His mother named Jill was very mad at Bill
But fortunately Bill only destroyed the Wheel
Any way Bill was sent to a reformatory, as big as a science laboratory, it was really a nightmare

And Bill tried to get away, but he couldn't, so he stayed, and the days passed, till one day
Jill forgave Bill, and they went fishing all day long.

Right then my mum woke me up to get ready for school.

Enrique De Lima, Colegio Colombo Británico

Rainbow Poem

Red fire burning fiercely across forests,
Hurting deeply during its path.
Orange dragons flying angrily around the incinerated woods,
Planning brilliantly over a lost land.
Yellow teardrops dripping sadly down my face,
Damaging hardly inside my thoughts.
Green emeralds shimmering slightly above the mines,
Shrieking loudly outside the cave.
Blue eyes staring gloomily with an evil look,
Killing violently through my mind.
Purple demons fighting aggressively under the earth,
Hitting each other strongly amongst hell.

María Lucía Velásquez, Colegio Bolivar

All About Me

My eyes are shiny like a star full of glitter in the sky
My heart holds feeling like an angel flying in the sky
My hair is soft and brown like a teddy bear sleeping in the sky
My spirit is happy like a bird full of energy flying up the sky
My brain is sometimes big and sometimes like a big computer Full of love, ideas, and feelings.

Daniela Piñeros, Colegio Bolivar

Mark Playing in the Park

There was a boy named Mark
That loved playing in the park
And listen to the dogs bark
Way until it became dark
While he read Noah's ark
He imagined he was a shark
Then his mom said, "let's go Mark"

Dieter Vlasich, Colegio Bolivar

I Want To Go

I want to go
Out of this war
This terrible war
I want to go
I want to go
Go to another town
A town I don't know
I want to go
I want to go
I would have to leave
With the few things I can take
I want to go

Gabriel Echeverri Marcus, Colegio Jefferson

A Storm Family

When it storms it forms a disaster
 And it rains faster
 When the sun appears
 The storm disappears.
 The thunder is terrible
 And it is unbearable
 So the thunder and lightning are brothers

Carlos Felipe Bustillos, Recited by Isabella Rojas, Colegio Bennett

Thunderstorm

Heavy clouds darken the sky
 I look up and a raindrop falls in my eye
 It starts to pour so I run inside
 And climb into bed where I safely hide.

Nicolas Thompson, Colegio Bennett

Storms

The storms are much stronger
 They usually take longer
 Sometimes storms make me feel sad
 They destroy all that you have.

Joevin Cheng, Recited by Manuela Valderrama, Colegio Bennett

Weather

Whether it rains Or not Whether it's cold Or hot
 Whether it snows Or hails
 The sky is bright Or pale Whether the sun shines in the sky Or it's gray and dark up high
 You can always count on me
 Not up to two, or up to three
 But as your very special friend
 Who'll be there until the end.

Maria José Cuevas Osorio, Colegio Jefferson

Thank You God

Thank you for nature For trees and bees

Thank you for morning light
 And stars in the night

Thank you for friends Love and care that never ends

Thank you for my family And faith
 Thank you for all the things we do

For the morning sun and the dew
 For flowers and sky of blue

We thank you God!

Juan José Gutierrez Uribe Colegio Jefferson

Max

Max oh Max

Is it so hard to ask
 Of all the things I do

You're my biggest task

I clean you, I comb you I pick up your poo

And all of those chores

Are all thanks to you.

You keep me awake

You mess up my bed

I should hate you

But I love you instead

You're cuddly, you're cute

You're like an animal from the zoo

But Max oh Max

I'll always love you!.

Alejandro Meza, Diana Oese
 Bilingual School

The love is coming to me

My heart Is like a singing bird

My heart is like the first day that a child had at the school

My heart is like the smile that the seniors have when they can say: Oh my God I graduate!

My heart is like a rainbow shell that paddels in a hycon sea

My heart is greatest than this because the love is coming to me.

Laura Gomez, Diana Oese
 Bilingual School

Scared, Scared

Scared, scared It's Halloween night and there's no light in my house.

Scared, scared when I see a black, scary bat.

Scared, scared I saw a white pesty rat.

Scared, scared a bad, mad, tall man yelled my name.

Scared, scared a black ghost.

Scared, scared a witch with a switch.

Happy, happy the black ghost started to pack to go to Panamá.

Seppe Scheldeman, Colegio
 Colombo Británico

On A Beautiful Day

On a beautiful day I play with my friends

On a beautiful day I feel happy

On a beautiful day I swim in the pool

On a beautiful day I play football too.

On a beautiful day I go to the park

On a beautiful day I don't cry

On a beautiful day I go to school

On a beautiful day I feel very proud too.

Oscar Libardo Ramirez, Colegio
 Colombo Británico
